Government of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit here

- with the Estimates for Rs 1000/- for repairing's the marginally^x noted temples at Heremagalur together with in the Chickmagalur Taluk for sanction.

- ^x
1. Kodanda Rama
Devar Temple Sugriva and Narasimha — Swami Temple

There are Rs 570-5-5 at the management head of the Kodanda Siva's Temple. Rama Devar Temple at Heremagalur;
3. Sanahya Van. —
-dana — Inambapam. out of this Rs 400/- was recommended for investment in the Savings Bank for utilizing the interest in making satisfactory arrangements for Pooja see in this office letter No. 12 dated 31st ultimo to the Muzrai Superintendent.

There will be a balance of ~~Rs~~ 170-5-5 left at the credit of the temple which is now available towards the cost of the estimated repairs.

Seagriva and Narasimha Swami temple has inam lands assessed at ~~Rs~~ 26-8- the gari and godi of which being ~~Rs~~ 24/- and 2-8-0 respectively. The gari amount is taken by Venkatakrishna Bhatt for worshipping the deities and the temple has no funds under the management head and it is situated within the precincts of the Kodanda Rama Dewaru Temple.

Sivas temple at Heremaglus has inam lands assessed at ~~Rs~~ 17/- the godi and gari of which being ~~Rs~~ 6-14-0 and 10-2-0 respectively. The gari amount is taken by Ramakrishna Bhatt who worships the deity. This temple has no amount under the management head and is badly in want of repairs.

Gupastamba is a stone pillar of historical interest; an estimate was prepared, long ago, for fencing this pillar but the improvements were not carried out.

Sambhavadana Brantapam near Hunda

contains the image of Gopal Krishna Devar. This temple has an Inam land assessed at ~~Rs~~ 13/- the godi and zari of which being ~~Rs~~ 3-12-0 and 9-4-0 respectively, and it has no funds either under the management or under the Surplus head.

The zari amount of this temple is taken by Venkatakrishnaiah as he worships the deity.

These temples were inspected by the Muzrai Superintendent on the 25th August last and carrying out of the most of the repairs estimated for, commended themselves to the Muzrai Superintendent when the temples were kindly inspected by him.

As the main temple of Kodanda Rama Devar is very dark and illventilated windows have been provided for, so as to admit of light and air ^{freely} ~~freely~~, as personally suggested by the Muzrai Superintendent.

Under the Circumstances above

above stated, I solicit the favor of Government Sanction for allotment of ~~Rs~~ 8,24-10-7 from the State grant Sanctioned for the year 1893-94 as these temples have no other funds, besides ~~Rs~~ 170-5-5 referred to in para
2 of this letter.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

M. S. P. S.
